問 1

- (1) He thinks that it has been great.
(2) He's acquired vocabulary such as the names of illnesses and medicines, terminology for school and education, and words his kids use for moods and feeling.
(3) No, he doesn't think so.
(4) He thinks that Japan is safer than England.
(5) "Wow, you're great with your chopsticks," or "Oooh, aren't you tall."
(6) Two categories—the curious and the oddball

問 2

(1) I am interested in living abroad. Simply put, I want to live in a foreign country. Traveling is one way to know about a country through sightseeing or other activities, but living there will bring me more insights from a wider perspective. I want to stay at least a year in a foreign country to enjoy life there. <58 words>

(2) I am interested in cooking, so I would like to learn some words and expressions while making a dish. I can look up the names of ingredients in a dictionary, but it is difficult to use the exact expressions to describe actions such as "kizamu" instead of "kiru." <47 words>
